

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. As Indiana's plan now stands, because it is such a powerful plan, many other states are basing their plans on our plan. This in itself should show how well Indiana's plan is working. Please do not implement a national plan that will override the privacy I've just recently been afforded.